Superintendent Says Teacher
Frequently Had Disputes
Over Small Matters.

Franklin J. Vines, 45 years old, of University City, ranking instructor in the high school branch of the Ritenour School, at Overland Park, St. Louis County, when leaving the school at 10 o'clock this morning
following the end of the scholastic year, was set upon by about 25 male students, who threw at him eggs
which he had brought to the school for that purpose.

He hastily retraced his steps, re-entering the school building. When he came out again, a few minutes
later, he carried a revolver so that it could be seen by the students.

This had the desired effect, so far as Vines was concerned. The boys
some of whom were armed with sticks and stones, made no effort to molest him, and he walked to the street car line, three blocks away,
without any interruption.

M. J. Hinkle, superintendent of the school, said that during the school year, which terminated yesterday afternoon, Vines had been engaging in frequent disputes with his boy pupils over trivial matters. Recently some of the boys complained to him that Vines had been ratted
their studies unfairly.

At 4 p. m. yesterday, when the class was dismissed for the season, about 10 or 15 boys congregated in the street, according to Supt. Hinkle, and several picked up stones. When Vines was about to depart he noticed the assemblage and requested Supt. Hinkle to telephone to the Sheriff at Clayton for a bodyguard.

Sherriff Escorted Instructor.
A Deputy Sheriff was sent to the school and escorted Vines to the street car. The boys at that time made no demonstration.

It was reported that Vines
Wednesday afternoon had a classroom altercation with Elmer Wilkerson, son of B. A. Wilkerson of Overland Park, and that the teacher
had threatened to strike him, and Superintendent Hinkle said that he had heard of an incident of that kind, but would not verify the name of the student. He said that Vines had reported to him that a student
had threatened to strike him, and
that he gently pushed the student aside. He told Hinkle that the student had objected to the manner in which he had been graded.

Supt. Hinkle said that he would take no action, unless requested by Vines to do so. He said that, as the school term had ended the students were no longer under his jurisdiction.

All of the teachers, with the exception of Vines, have been reappointed for another term by the School Board. No one has been appointed in Vines' place. Vines could not be reached this afternoon for a statement.

HOOVER FOR OPEN SHOP; AGAINST ANY LEGAL REPRESSION

Sanctions Organization of Labor but Holds Individuals Should Not Be Forced Into Unions.

NO RELIEF SEEN IN LABOR LEGISLATION

Compulsory Adjustment of Disputes Only Leads to Jail, He Says—Plan of Conference Favored.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 14.—"The principle of individual freedom requires the open shop," Herbert Hoover declared today in testifying
before the Senate Labor Committee
at hearings on proposed legislation
for the settlement of industrial unrest.

Hoover, who was a member of President Wilson's second industrial conference, said he did not believe the relationship between employers
and employees could be settled "by any form of legal repression, whether it be by injunction, compulsory arbitration or industrial courts."

"Fundamentally," he declared, "all such effort leads inevitably to the use of force as a solution for disputes as to participation of labor and capital in industrial profits, and proceeds swiftly toward compulsory labor, or compulsory wages, or martyrdom."

"I doubt that the modern consolidation of the employers over large units of employees gives every justification and right for the organization of the employees similarly into units for the exertion of equality in bargaining powers. Such organization has a right to present its own representatives in bargaining. On the other hand, there should be no compulsion to join such an organization. The people of individual freedom require the open shop."

Approves Conference Plan.
Hoover heartily approved the plan of the second industrial conference for voluntary settlement of labor trouble through co-operative agreement.

"It avoids the pitfalls," he said,
"to my mind it is the best and only
step to be taken until the whole broad question between employer
and employee has been developed."

Chairman Kenyon said that as the president had not communicated his views on the industrial conference
report to Congress, there was no way of knowing how he felt. He asked Hoover if he knew what the President thought.

"I have not the remotest idea," he replied.

Senator Jones, Democrat, New Mexico, wanted to know if labor had not been disturbed by excessive profits.

"It has," replied Hoover, "but it is difficult to say how far this has helped to cause industrial unrest,
now that the cost of living is so high."

HOOVER SAYS SUGAR SITUATION WON'T BE NORMAL FOR 2 YEARS

He Attributes Rapid Rise in Price Partly to Palmer's
Louisiana Crop Ruling.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Two or three years will be required for the sugar situation to get back to normal, Herbert Hoover, former Food Administrator, estimated today before the House committee investigating the sugar situation.

Hoover, expressing what he said
was an "offhand" opinion, asserted that there would have been a "less rapid" rise in domestic sugar prices
had Attorney General Palmer not agreed that Louisiana producers
could sell their crop at 17 and 18
cents a pound.

"Prices have never been fixed by the Government or mortal man by threat of jail," Hoover declared. "They have got to be fixed by the business
process of purchase and sale."

The witness said the Cuban price
was due to a "far wider cause—the world's shortage."

Purchase of the Cuban crop last July with Government control over distribution would have given the people 12 1/2-cent sugar at this time
instead of 25-cent sugar, Hoover testified.

Reverting to the Louisiana situation, Hoover said he understood the crop was short and that there probably was some justice in the larger price. He thought, however, that it had influenced Cubans to stimulate the price of their products.

"But constructively, if I had been dealing with it," he added, "I would have purchased the entire Louisiana
output through the sugar equalization board at a just price, allowing the board to take the loss or selling
to the luxury trade at an extra price."

"You have got to consider the tremendous shortage in Europe which started the big pull on the Western Hemisphere. Now this will work out against the United States is difficult to answer because we cannot just now estimate the buying power of Europe. If Europe took its first full normal purchases, the shortage would be enormous. Even at the present rate of consumption there is a considerable shortage."

LIMIT ON SUGAR SALES UNLAWFUL, SAYS NEW RULING

Department of Justice Holds Restrictions Violate Trade Commission Act.

The practice of some grocers in limiting their customers to one pound of sugar at a purchase and in refusing to take orders for more than one pound is unlawful, the Department of Justice today informed its agents here.

The telegram conveying this information was to James J. McLaughlin, in charge of the investigating bureau
of the department here, in reply to his inquiry. Upon its receipt, Mc-Laughlin took to Vance J. Huggs,
special assistant to the Attorney General, in charge of prosecutions
under the Lever and other war-time acts, about 50 complaints in which sugar restrictions had been placed on customers by retailers with a view to prosecuting the dealers.

These practices clearly constitute a case of unfair competition, the telegram to McLaughlin said.

WILL DISPOSING OF $500,000 CLYMER ESTATE CONTESTED

Two Sisters, Two Brothers
of County Woman Plaintiffs—Nephew and Trust Company Defendants.

SAY TESTATOR WAS OF UNSOUND MIND

Julius R. Nolte Named Executor Pending Outcome
of Litigation—Nephew Inherited All of Realty.

A suit to contest the will of Mrs.
Eliza A. W. Clymer, whose estate, consisting largely of St. Louis and St. Louis County realty, has an estimated value of $500,000, was filed in the Clayton Circuit Court today by her sisters, Eloise von Schrader and Mrs. Julia Hodgson, her brothers,
Otto U. and Lieutenant-Colonel Al-
bin von Schrader, and the children
of another brother, Frederick W. von Schrader.

The suit names as defendants
Dana von Schrader, a minor, Mrs.
Clymer's nephew, who inherited all the real estate under the will, his parents, George and Alice von Schrader of Bridgeport, St. Louis County, and the St. Louis Union Trust Co., executor under the will.

Probate Judge Hodgson, on being notified that the suit had been filed in the Circuit Court, ruled that the St. Louis Union Trust Co., being a party to the suit, could not further execute the will, and he named Julius R. Nolte executor pending the litigation, with a bond of $50,000.

Charges Made by Plaintiffs.
Mrs. Clymer died in Mississippi
Feb. 18, last, at the age of 74. She was the widow of Heister Clymer,
once a member of Congress from a Pennsylvania district. Her first husband was James Clemens, a descendant of the Mulvaney family, and from him she inherited realty valued at $250,000. She also inherited her husband's property, and her husband
had held property in later investments.

In their suit, the contesting claimants allege that Mrs. Clymer was not of sound mind and was incapable of making a will, did not know her property, did not know who were the natural objects of her bounty, and did not know the nature of the bequest of such persons upon her.

It is further charged that George von Schrader and his wife, in behalf of the estate, exercised an undue influence upon her, and that a codicil,
which revoked a bequest of $5000 to Eloise von Schrader, was added in accordance with their wishes.

Nephew Chief Beneficiary.
The will, as drawn Dec. 2, 1916,
left $5000 to Eloise von Schrader,
and all Mrs. Clymer's personal effects to Mrs. Hodgson; and placed the residue of the estate in trust
with the St. Louis Union Trust Co.
to pay the income to Mrs. Clymer
for life, and after her death to pay
the expenses of her education until she was 21. After the age of 21, it was provided that he should receive the full
income in quarterly installments.

The codicil revoked the $5000 bequest to Eloise von Schrader, thus leaving to the nephew all extent the personal effects.

The largest item of Mrs. Clymer's estate is a lot with a frontage of 120 feet on Eighth street and 127
feet on St. Charles street, a portion of the site of the Mercantile Trust Building. She acquired it for $150,000, and it is now valued at twice that amount. Another item is a 20-acre tract in Nyon, Schrader, where Miss Eloise von Schrader, who is 75 years old, lives. The farm was partitioned in 1917, but none of the portions had been sold.

CLERK TRIED TO SWING 3-MILLION SHIP DEAL ON $10

Gave Morse Personal Checks
for $340,000 Dated in Advance, He Tells Congressmen.

MORSE FAMILY DREW BIG SUM IN SALARIES

Receiver of an Iron Works
Testifies as to Condition
of Concern, Calling Them
"Very Bad."

NEW YORK, May 14.—With a bank account of $10 and unlimited confidence in his ability to get hundreds of thousands more, E. A. Moulton
of New Rochelle, a 550-a-week
employee of a steamship firm, last night startled the congressional committee investigating the relations of the Morse interests with the United States Shipping Board with a recital of how he negotiated with Charles W. Morse in an attempted purchase of four steamships valued at $750,000 each. President Taft pardoned Morse when he was serving a term in Atlanta prison for fraud.
Morse was reported dying.

Moulton said he intended to purchase the steamers Huron, St. Paul, Binghamton and Minneapolis from the United States Steamship Co. and that he gave Charles W. Morse, head of this company, personal checks for $340,000 toward the purchase. The checks were dated in advance. Reminded by Representative Tom Connelly of Texas that he had previously admitted having only $10 in a New Rochelle bank, Moulton said he intended to put the money up to cover the checks.

"This was all a moonshine proposition," Connelly said. "I could have got the money."

Moulton said the deal collapsed
when the United States Government refused to transfer the ships to the navy registry, and that Morse released him from his obligation and he in turn gave Morse a release.

"Seized," released, Representative
Connelly suggested.

"Oh, no," Moulton replied. "Morse moved himself from a million-dollar ship. I could have sued him for not getting the ships."

Attended Official Meetings.
Moulton admitted he had attended meetings in Washington with Emergency Fleet Corporation officials in company with other men.

Moulton's testimony followed that of Ira Campbell, counsel for the Emergency Fleet Corporation. Campbell told the committee that the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, one of the Morse interests, in an attempt to have $550,000 advanced to be plant for work on ships, informed emergency fleet officials that they would put up as collateral for security on the loan mortgages assigned to them by the United States Steamship Co. the parent Morse concern.

Moulton was warned by Chairman
Walsh that anything he said might be used against him, but he waived immunity. The chairman asked him whether he was implicated in the loading of prepaid freight on two of the four ships in question for overseas destination, over which the shippers have started lawsuits. He said that indirectly he had secured
cargoes for the St. Paul and Huron.

Salaries for the Family.
Frederick Collin, receiver of the Groton Iron Works of Groton, Conn., testified that his first official act was
to remove Morse and his three sons
as officers of the company to save that concern $58,000 a year paid to the Morse family.

Asked if he thought there was any dishonesty at the plant he replied:
"I wouldn't say that. There might have been some strains of conscience."

When the receivers stepped in at the Groton plant, Collin said, conditions were "very bad." The tool stock was depleted and dredging incomplete for launching ships, and the plant could not be operated without aid from emergency fleet corporation.

TRAIN ROBBER KILLED, AND $105,000 HE GOT RECOVERED, IN CHICAGO

Bandit Shot by Police Riflemen in Fight After He Is Cornered
in His Apartment.

ALMOST HOME WITH LOOT; GRIP AROUSES SUSPICION

Policemen, Unaware of Holdup on Illinois Central Train, Stop Him, and He Opens Fire
—Identified as St. Joseph (Mo.) Man
—Has Y. M. C. A. Card.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, May 14.—One of the most daring train robberies in recent years in the Middle West ended this morning in the death of a lone bandit, who last night looted the Illinois Central New Orleans Limited mail car, and the recovery of $105,000 in currency.
One policeman, shot by the bandit, is dying, and another is seriously wounded.

The bandit was identified as Horace Walton, 22 years old, of St. Joseph, Mo. Walton fell with four bullets in his body after barricading
himself in his apartment and fighting a pitched battle with more than 100 policemen, including several picked rifle squads.

Walton boarded the train at Gil-
man, a few miles from Kankakee, Ill., and about 50 miles south of Chicago, last night, taking a seat in Pullman. A Decatur pouch containing registered mail was taken on the train at Gilman.

As the flyer pulled out of Kankakee, Walton stepped into the mail car and announced that he was the postal inspector. He walked toward Elmer F. Harris, chief clerk, and his four assistants, then suddenly drew
a revolver and commanded "hand
up."

Clerks Bound on Floor.
The clerks obeyed. Harris and three of the clerks were ordered to lie on the floor, and James E. Burke,
the fourth clerk, was forced to bind
their hands behind them. Walton
then tied Burke's hands and began leisurely to sort the mail pouches.

Armed with the clerk's key, he picked out and rifled the bags which contained shipments of money, remarking that "it's easy when you have inside information." A traveling bag taken from one of the clerks furnished a receptacle for the money.

After filling the bag, Walton kept up a running fire of bullets with the clerks until the train reached Englewood Station, in South Chicago, shortly before 1 a. m. There he opened the door and the train gathered speed.

Fifteen minutes later Patrolmen
William A. Roberts and John Kendricks met Walton. Their suspicions were aroused by the bag, and Roberts stepped forward to question the man. Walton, with his revolver in his pocket, fired through his coat,
and Roberts fell, shot in the head
and side.

Drops Bag and Flees.
Walton leaped into the arroyo
of an apartment building, while Kendricks dropped behind Roberts'
body and opened fire. After an exchange of shots, the policeman dashed forward and grappled with the man. Walton dropped the bag and fled.

Police rifle squads, summoned by the neighbors, located the man in an apartment house, a half block away. They surrounded the building and for more than an hour
poured hundreds of bullets into Walton's apartment. He returned the fire steadily, using two weapons.
One suddenly stopped. Detective Chief Mooney led a dash on the room and found Walton on the floor, dead.

A membership card issued by the St. Joseph Y. M. C. A., and a letter addressed to Mrs. E. V. Walton, 222
North Seventh street, St. Joseph,
were found in his pocket.

Patrolman Roberts was rushed to a hospital, where doctors said he could not recover. Patrolman Thomas Stetter also was wounded,
but not fatally.

How Robbery Was Planned.
Walton had lived in the apartment where he was killed for several weeks, according to neighbors.
The holdup apparently had been carefully planned. A postal inspector's badge, a mail pouch key and an Illinois Central time table, printed in pencil on a card, were found on the body.

Chief Clerk Harris in the mail
bag found none.

Walton, the train robber who was killed by the Chicago police, was a St. Joseph High School graduate, 22 years old. His father is a clerk in a St. Joseph hotel. The youth was a railway mail clerk until a month ago,
when he resigned and left home
without telling his parents where he was going. He was a member of the local Y. M. C. A. and was well known here. His father, E. T. Wal-

HIGH COST BRINGING END OF POLYGAMY IN PERSIA
Women, Too, Are Showing Jealousy
Since Western Ideas Entered Country.
(Special Correspondence of the Associated Press.)
TEHERAN, April 19.—Polygamy
is dying out in Persia—another result of greatly advanced living costs,
together with jealousy, which is becoming more marked a characteristic of Persian wives, with the permeation of Western ideas and standards in the East.
With this change has come another—the custom of having family names. A year ago the Persian Government made it compulsory for people to adopt a surname. Before this only peasants had any common name
in the family, the upper classes not naming only one. A man, for instance, might be called Ghaflar singularly, and his son Hassan, with nothing
to show their relationship.

INDIANA GIVES
JOHNSON FOUR,
WOOD TEN VOTES

Other 16 Delegates to Republican Convention Will Go Uninstructed—Women and Negro Alternates.

By the Associated Press. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 14.—Indiana will send 16 delegates to the Republican National convention in Chicago next month instructed for Major-General Leonard Wood, four instructed for Senator Hiram Johnson of California, and 12 uninstructed. This was one of the net results of the Republican State convention that adjourned since last night after nominating a State ticket, adopting a platform and electing four delegates at large to the national convention.

The only contest of the convention came over the adoption of a qualified resolution instructing the "big four" to support Gen. Wood, who won the plurality in the primary last week, "as long as there is a fair chance for him to get the presidential nomination." The resolution was carried after a hard fight led by the Marion County (Indiana) delegation, by a vote of 755 to 745.

The convention named United States Senators James E. Watson and Harry S. New. Gov. James P. Goodrich and former Senator Albert J. Beveridge as delegates at large and selected State chairman E. M. Wasmuth, Mrs. Anne Studebaker, Carlisle of South Bend, Mrs. Joseph B. Keating of Indianapolis, and W. A. Gaines of Evansville, a negro leader, as alternate delegates at large. Their selection was unopposed.

The State ticket includes: For United States Senator James P. Watson, Rushville, incumbent, unopposed; for Governor, Warren T. McCray, Kentland, nominated in primary; for Lieutenant Governor, Emmett F. G. O. P. COMMITTEE GOT $5000
TO SPEND IN BOND CAMPAIGN

The Republican City Committee, through its chairman, Director of Public Welfare Schmoll, received $5000 from the Citizens' Bond Issue Committee, just before the special election Tuesday, for use in getting out voters favorable to the bonds. It was distributed to the workers in each of the 500 precincts, $10 to a precinct.

Thomas H. Lovelace, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, said today that the $5000 came from the expense fund contributed by citizens, and that it was used to insure a canvass the afternoon before the election of those who had signed cards pledging themselves to vote for the bonds, reminding them of their pledge, and to get these voters to the polls Tuesday.

KILLS WIFE HE WED WHEN SHE WAS 14, AND HIMSELF

BENTON, Ill., May 14.—George Kranick, 26 years old, shot and killed his wife, Anna, and then killed himself at Buckner, near here, early today.

Kranick and Anna Jacobs were married six years ago when she was 14 years old. They lived together three weeks and separated. They met in St. Louis Monday. It is said she had been dodging him since they were separated. While in St. Louis her mail was addressed to Hotel Benton. She came to Buckner Tuesday night and he followed and it was thought a reconciliation had been effected. They were out together late last night and the tragedy occurred after they returned to her sister's home. Letters addressed to his parents in Pennsylvania told of his intention to kill his wife and himself.

MEXICAN BOYS STUDENTS HERE

Gen. Candido Aguilar, a son-in-law of Venustiano Carranza, has his son, youngest brother and a nephew studying at Chaminade College, a Catholic preparatory school for boys, Denny road near Clayton road, St. Louis County. Juan, 7, is his son; Ricardo, 12, is his brother, and Cilverio Jr., 10, is his nephew, being the son of a Vera Cruz coffee merchant.

The boys are personal wards of Col. Edmundo Martinez, Mexican Consul here, who returned to Mexico City several months ago. Gen. Aguilar was in charge of the loyal troops with the President in his recent flight from Mexico City, according to dispatches. Teleforo Cabrera, 10, a nephew of Luis Cabrera, Minister of Finance under Carranza, is at the school also. The boys' plans for the summer, in view of the revolution, have not been decided. They came here to study English.

Grand Jury to Take Up Robbery. State's Attorney Schaumleffel of Belleville announced today that he will recall the grand jury shortly in order to investigate the Drovers' National Bank robbery in National City. Three of the alleged bank robbers are in custody. They are Frank Fainstick, who is held in the East St. Louis Jail under bond of $25,000, and Harry Greenburg and James McCoy, who are held in St. Louis. The return of Greenburg and McCoy to Illinois will be sought.

CLOTHING WORKERS PLAN
FUND FOR IDLE EMPLOYEES

Convention at Boston Votes to Create
Relief and Raise $10,000,000
From Their Profits.

BOSTON, May 14.—A resolution requesting their employers to set aside an unemployment fund out of their profits for the benefit of employees who are idle during slack periods in the industry was adopted by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America who closed their fourth biennial convention here today. The organization hopes to create a $10,000,000 fund in this manner.

The delegates also voted to put into operation within 90 days one joint board in New York, under which the joint board of the Children's Clothing Workers will be abolished. A resolution advocating a five-day week of 40 hours was defeated.

The candidacy of Eugene V. Debs for President was endorsed, although the convention refused to go on record as a body as favoring the Socialist party. Removal of the blockade against Russia and recognition of the Soviet Government were urged.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The House is standing staunchly by its ancient free seed privilege. When the question arose again yesterday during consideration of the conference report on the annual agricultural bill Representative Blanton of Texas sought to get the House to concur in the Senate amendment striking out the $239,416 item for the distribution of free garden seeds among constituents.

The House voted 101 to 33 to instruct its conferees against giving in to the Senate.

WATER BASIN BILL OFFERED SIXTH TIME

Commissioner Wall Insists Coverers Are Needed to Keep Water in Basins Clear.

Water Commissioner Wall, for the sixth time since 1915, today prepared a bill providing for placing concrete covers over one settling basin at Baden and two basins at Bissell's Point, to prevent city drinking water from contamination.

In submitting the bill to the Board of Public Service, Commissioner Wall said that if the work had been done when he first suggested it in 1915 the cost would have been $100,000, but that it would now cost $370,000 and that if the bill should be passed in the regular course the cost at the time of its passage probably would be $400,000.

Urging the passage of the bill the commission points out that lack of covers makes it necessary to put the basins out of service for a time each year to empty and clean them.

The basins, he said, catch dust and filth from livestock cars crossing the Merchants bridge and from the city dump at the foot of Ferry street. The water from these basins is pumped into the two basins of the Compton Hill reservoir where, he says, it must be treated with copper sulphate to make it fit for use. Examination of the water in the Compton Hill basins last year, he says, showed 3600 organisms to a cubic centigrade, the equivalent of about a teaspoonful of water. The purifying of the water put these basins out of commission 30 days last summer.

The commission characterizes the present system of leaving the Baden and Bissell's Point basins uncovered as "little short of a public disgrace." He points out that the cleaning and purification of the water in seven reservoir basins last year cost $24,850 and that this expenditure would not have been necessary if the settling basins had been covered.

LOUISIANA TO ACQUIRE GAME PRESERVE OF 163,000 ACRES

Marsh Island, Extending 75 Miles Along Gulf, Given to State by Mrs. Russell Sage. By the Associated Press. NEW ORLEANS, May 14.—If the Legislature passes a bill of acceptance, Louisiana will have acquired a veritable Empire of the Wild, stretching along the Gulf of Mexico for a distance of 75 miles and comprising an area of 500 square miles. The bill of acceptance is only a formality and the State Conservation Department already has begun to outline the work necessary to keep the tract safe for the creatures of the wild.

The property consists of Marsh Island with 75,000 acres of land purchased by Mrs. Russell Sage and given to the State as a game refuge and a tract of 85,000 acres in Vermillion and Cameron parishes on the coast given by the Rockefeller Foundation. Adjoining Marsh Island is the present State game farm on land belonging to the McIlhenny interests of 60,000 acres. Lying between the game farm and the Rockefeller tract is what is known as the Grand Chenier tract of 5,000 acres which the State expects to acquire in the near future. This will give Louisiana what is believed here to be the greatest wild life refuge in the world. The great domain is patrolled by agents of the Conservation Commission and on it all sorts of game are protected and propagated.

Edward A. McIlhenny, a wealthy salt mine owner, has given great tracts of lands as well as large sums of money to aid in the work.

Score Hurt in I. C. Wreck. LE MARSH, La., May 14.—A score of passengers were cut and bruised in a wreck of the westbound Illinois Central passenger train a mile east of here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. None are said to be in a dangerous condition. The accident was caused by spreading rails.

ROADS SEEK U. S. AID IN FREIGHT CONGESTION

Rail Officials Ask for Heroic Measures—226,000 Cars Needed to Reach Normal.

By the Associated Press.
 WASHINGTON, May 14.—Congress was asked yesterday to help the railroads overcome the freight congestion so as to keep production—needed to put down the cost of living—going at full tilt.
 As a means of enabling the roads to provide equipment, shortage of which is said to be largely responsible for failure to move mountains of freight piled high at the principal gateways in the East and Middle West, the Senate's Interstate Commerce Committee approved an amendment to the transportation act under which they would be given 15 years, instead of five, to pay back advances under the $300,000,000 revolving fund.

Railroad officials said this would help, but that they pointed out that the immediate trouble called for heroic measures to relieve congestion, and that the carriers, for instance, required 226,000 cars to reach normal. While most of the roads of the West, the Senate's Interstate Commerce Committee officials said a perceptible improvement was shown by reports received from all sections. Complaints still came from shippers, however, and the car service committee of the association, which directs the car movement, endeavored to allocate equipment to sections and industries in greatest need.

There was no embargo on the movement of coal, livestock and perishables, and these commodities had a preferential rating and right of way next to passenger train service, which thus far has not been affected. Government agencies in touch with the transportation systems put forth every effort to help relieve the situation, admittedly bad, but not quite so bad as a week or 10 days ago.

Demands for coal were general, this was kept moving, while orders were issued for the quick dispatch of cars to the Northwest for shipment of grain and refrigerator cars for California and Florida to take care of perishables.

Steady Flow South Reported.
 The South seemed to be the only section free of congestion, the roads reporting a steady flow of south-bound freight with the north-bound movement regulated at eastern and western gateways by the ability of connecting roads to accept cars at the Potomac yards here the southern gateway used by all lines in and out of Washington, officials reported that 2500 cars were handled. Shipment north and south was about equally divided, but the northward flow was stopped suddenly at midnight Wednesday by an embargo on all except the three favored commodities.

Particular attention was given to the New England situation because of reports that the tie-up was general and that the number of cars waiting to be moved now exceeds 20,000. Swamped as they are at some points, officials said it was natural to expect confusion, especially with a shortage of labor, which has seriously retarded work at junctions.

G. O. P. NOT BIG ENOUGH IN FLORIDA TO HOLD PRIMARY

Supreme Court of State So Rules in View of Failure to Poll Five Per Cent of Vote in Last Election.

By the Associated Press.
 TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 14.—In denying an application for a writ of quo warranto to oust Daniel T. Garrow from the chairmanship of the Republican State Executive Committee, the Supreme Court held that inasmuch as in the last election the Republican party in Florida polled less than 5 per cent of the total vote, it is not recognized as a party under the laws of this State. The laws require that a party in order to hold a primary must have polled not less than 5 per cent of the total vote in the previous State election. Therefore, the court held, as there is no law applying to the organization, it has no status in the eyes of the law as a political party and the court cannot take cognizance of its alleged existence as such.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC CONGESTED

Embargo Notice No. 22, issued today by the Chamber of Commerce Traffic Bureau, shows considerable curtailment of freight traffic by the insurgent switchmen's strike, which began five weeks ago yesterday. The Pennsylvania, at its East Side depot, is not accepting freight for Cleveland or for the Marietta Division. The Wabash, on both sides of the river, is receiving no business for Detroit or for connecting lines routing through Detroit. The Baltimore & Ohio has placed an embargo on all less-than-carload freight, except for local points west of Cincinnati.

SECOND ARREST ON POISON PLOT CHARGES

Farmer in Cedar County, Missouri Held in Connection With Deaths of Wife and Neighbor.

By the Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 14.—King Bruce, a Cedar County farmer residing near Stockton, was arrested yesterday on his farm in connection with an alleged poison plot which resulted in the death of Mrs. Bruce and C. E. Decker, a neighbor, last winter. The arrest was made, the authorities said, after word had been received that chemical analysis of the viscera of Mrs. Bruce revealed traces of poison.

Bruce was taken to Stockton, where a large crowd had gathered. Fearing violence, the Sheriff hurried the prisoner to Nevada, Mo., and placed him in jail there, where he will be held for preliminary hearing.

Mrs. Decker has been under arrest several days on charge of murder in connection with the case. Her preliminary hearing was scheduled to have been held yesterday but was postponed until May 21 because the Prosecuting Attorney of Cedar County was ill. She had been at liberty on $15,000 bond but that expired yesterday and she was returned to jail at Stockton.

She was arrested when chemists reported that traces of poison had been found in the vital organs of her husband.

Suspicion was aroused after the deaths of Mrs. Bruce and Decker, within two weeks when Mrs. Decker became the housekeeper for Bruce.

By the Associated Press. LINCOLN CENTER, Kan., May 14.—The poisoning of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bunch of this place, who died under suspicious circumstances a year and a half ago, was in progress for days, according to a statement given the county authorities last night by Miss Stella Hyman, who, with her nephew, Lee Bunch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bunch, has admitted a plot to kill the couple.

Miss Hyman, who broke down for the first time since her arrest last Monday, declared, according to officials, that she poured water in which fly paper had been soaked into the food she gave Mr. and Mrs. Bunch. The reason for the poisoning, according to the woman, was that the elder Bunches opposed her marriage to Lee Bunch. Mrs. Bunch was Miss Hyman's sister.

You Buy No "Water" When You Buy Union Electric Preferred Stock

Union Electric Light & Power Company was not a "war profiteer." Costs rose faster than rates. It has issued no stock dividends to absorb unfair profits. Its capitalization is increased, under State supervision, only as and when new cash, dollar for dollar, is invested in extending the business for the public service.

Every dollar of Union Electric's securities, outstanding or on sale, is backed by more than a dollar's worth of income-producing property, maintained always in good condition. The company's property, capitalized at approximately $36,500,000, could not be reproduced today for $50,000,000.

The company's dividend earnings are at the rate of nearly SIX TIMES the $210,000 a year needed to pay 7 per cent dividends on its $3,000,000 of preferred stock outstanding and on sale.

Union Electric's 7 per cent preferred stock is now offered to the general public, to finance further growth, as a most desirable investment for those who want a fair dividend rate with safety for their principal. It is preferred both as to dividends and in any distribution of assets, over the $11,000,000 of common stock. It is not cumulative; but, for the reasons stated above, and because Union Electric is a PERMANENT, NECESSARY, PROSPEROUS business, State-appraised and State-regulated, its yearly dividends of $7 a year on each $100 share are, in our judgment, far more dependable than those of most preferred stocks whose preference is cumulative. For the investor who cannot afford to risk a loss, ABILITY TO DELIVER THE GOODS, proven over a long period of years, is more important than a paper promise.

PRICE: $100 a share for cash; $102 a share on a ten-payment plan, under which buyers draw 5 per cent interest on installment payments, and can withdraw all payments WITH INTEREST, any time before the final installment is paid.

SALES OFFICES: Room 301 Union Electric Building, 12th and Locust Streets, St. Louis, and Union Electric's offices in Franklin, Jefferson, Perry, St. Charles and St. Louis counties.

CITY SAID TO NEED NEW HOTEL OF 1000 ROOMS

Convention Bureau Head Says
Shortage of Accommodations Is Acute.

A new 1000-room hotel for St. Louis is declared to be a necessity, in a report adopted by the St. Louis Convention, Publicity and Tourist Bureau, at its annual meeting, held yesterday at the Planters Hotel. A committee was appointed to interest capital, real estate and hotel men in such an enterprise, this committee consisting of Isaac A. Hedges, Henry R. Welsels and Elzey M. Roberts.

In a report on the need for such a hotel, Charles F. Hatfield, secretary and general manager, said: "Every hotel in St. Louis is crowded to such an extent that it is almost impossible to find accommodations, and the bookings for conventions are increasing. Rather than let up on the activities of the bureau, they should be more intense, and force the building of additional hotels, in the same manner that a business house, when it finds its capacity for business limited, adds to its room."

"During the fiscal year from May 1, 1919, to May 1, 1920, we had 363 conventions, showing a steady increase. In fact, we have all that we could take care of until we have more facilities in the way of auditoriums and hotels. We have actually had to turn down at least 50 conventions this year, most of which have been transferred into 1921, because of having reached the capacity of the hotels."

"The great crying need now is another hotel. I believe we could keep full for at least nine months out of the year in a new 1000-room hotel, and if the Board of Directors would pass a resolution urging that the real estate and financial interests take action that might result in a new hotel, it would be the most valuable thing they could do today, attracting further attention to a recognized good investment for someone."

Carl F. G. Meyer was re-elected president of the bureau, and H. Hatfield secretary-manager. Thomas W. Garland and Isaac A. Hedges were elected vice presidents, and R. F. McNally treasurer.

OTHER DOCTORS OFFER TO DO EGGERS' WORK FOR LESS PAY

Two Offer Services As Deputy State
Health Commissioner for $2500
and $3600.

A bill of $6179 for 82 days' work as Deputy State Health Commissioner for St. Louis County, submitted recently by Dr. G. C. Eggers, has caused two other St. Louis County physicians to write to the County Court offering their services for the entire year at figures much lower than those Dr. Eggers charged for less than three months' service.

Dr. M. Leon, 506 Hampton avenue, Clayton, has volunteered to give a bond of $20,000 for the performance of all the duties required of the office and, in addition, to attend the prisoners of the County Jail who may become ill, for the sum of $3600 a year. He adds that 90 per cent of the physicians of the county would undertake the work at that figure.

Dr. G. C. Grosby of Clayton has said that he will perform the duties of the office for $2500 a year plus the cost of any office help he might be forced to employ.

The County Court is of the opinion that, inasmuch as it appointed Dr. Eggers for three years last Feb. 2, it cannot remove him without cause, but is planning a readjustment of the fees allowed in the arrangement with the county.

Mrs. C. Sasher Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema

"I had been troubled with eczema on my hands, arms, and neck for over two years. It was in pimples which itched and burned in hot weather and caused me to lose lots of sleep. The pimples soon got into watery blisters and I was disfigured for several weeks. I was treated but to no avail, but after using two full-sized cakes of Cuticura Soap and not quite one full-sized box of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. C. Sasher, R. 2, Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 22, 1919.

Cuticura Soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally prevent pimples or other eruptions. They are a pleasure to use, as is also Cuticura Talcum, a fascinating fragrance for perfuming the skin.

Sample Book Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura," Manufacturers, Dept. A, Malden, Mass. Sold everywhere. Cuticura Soap shaves without soap.

Justice sometimes goes wrong. Men are often punished for crimes they do not commit. And when we thoughtlessly take purgatives and cathartics to relieve stagnant bowels, we are committing a similar injustice.

When the system is unable to remove food waste at regular intervals, it is the food waste, and not the system, that needs correction.

Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system. Nujol works on the waste matter instead of on the system. By this entirely new principle Nujol will keep the poisonous waste moving out of the body.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

SAYS DOLLAR'S VALUE WILL BE DOUBLED

A dollar saved today will be worth $2 in purchasing power five years from now, was predicted by J. H. Sawyer, special representative of the United States Treasury Department, savings division, who spoke yesterday noon before the City Club.

He spoke of the reasons for depreciation.—Globe-Democrat.

IT is an undisputed fact that the present high prices are caused by the shrunken purchasing power of the dollar.

The 1920 dollar, if spent, is about equal to the 1914 half dollar.

The 1920 dollar, if saved, is the equal of the 1914 dollar, because it earns the same amount of interest—3%.

The pendulum of prices is bound to swing back, and when it does, your saved dollar will have regained its full purchasing power.

Save—for lower prices.

HOOVER URGES FIGHT IN OREGON TO BEAT JOHNSON

Wires Manager to Center.
Effort on Vote Against
'No League' Candidates
Rather Than for His Name.

'PARTY MUST AVOID WILSON-JOHNSON TRAP'

Expresses Hope for Republican Platform Indorsement of Prompt Treaty Ratification.

By the Associated Press.
PORTLAND, Ore., May 14.—Herbert Hoover has requested cessation of all efforts in his behalf in the primary campaign in Oregon, according to the construction placed by Chester G. Murphy, his State campaign chairman, upon Hoover's telegram sent to Murphy yesterday, and Murphy last night declared that the request would be heeded and that no further efforts in his behalf would be made in this State, although it is too late to have his name left off the primary ballot.

Murphy based his action on this paragraph from Hoover's message as received here:

"I understand that there are five candidates on the Republican ballot (in Oregon), all of whom have friends. Some of these candidates are for and some against the league. No one of these candidates can withdraw. Consequently there will be a great split in the votes between names, resulting in the clouding of the vital issues. The total vote recorded against the 'no league' candidates may give some indication of Oregon's views and every effort should be directed to this end rather than to the advancement of my name."

"Inasmuch as the only important candidate before the voters of Oregon representing 'no league' sentiment is Hiram Johnson of California, the request of Mr. Hoover can be construed only as an urgent request to defeat Mr. Johnson at the local primary of May 21," said Murphy. "His action is not understood, however, to be in any sense a withdrawal from candidacy before the Chicago convention."

Republican Party 'Must Support League With Reservations'

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 14.—Herbert Hoover, replying by telegraph yesterday to the request of the Hoover Republican Club of Portland, Ore., for his "views on various matters arising in the Oregon primaries," declared the Republican party "must support the league with reservations. It must not fall into the trap that President Wilson and Senator Johnson are cutting it into."

"The President," he declared, "Hoover said, 'that the Democratic party must demand the acceptance of the league in full as presented by him to the Senate. Senator Johnson demands that the Republican party oppose the league altogether. Two more destructive attitudes towards a great issue could not be found."

"An emergency is created by this alliance of destruction. The aspirations of the great majority of our people will be thwarted by either of these extremes. This majority is fixed in its determination that the United States, both for our own protection and in the interest of the welfare of the world, shall join the league by ratifying the treaty, but that we shall do so only under assurance of no infringement of our constitution and our traditions."

"The inflexible attitude of the President and his supporters and of Senator Johnson and his supporters has brought this issue into the election at an immeasurable moral and economic cost to our own country and to the world. If the Republican party, however, is to voice the will of the people and is not to forfeit the certainty of leadership in the next four years, it must embrace the great opportunity which the majority of the American people are preparing to give it."

Hoover declared a league to reduce armament and prevent war "is not the property of any one party;" that Theodore Roosevelt supported it in 1910 when he was awarded the Nobel peace prize and that "the one league that the world has now evolved after all the sacrifice of five years has been adopted under proper safeguards to the United States by the majority of the Republican Senators, the great leaders of the Republican party and various State platforms, and has already been joined by 28 nations."

"I therefore hope," he added, "that the more than a thousand clubs that have sprung up in the country advocating my name at the Chicago convention will, in addition to the primary task they have undertaken, continue to keep to the forefront their real purpose, the right alignment of the party on the many issues before us and that they will use their utmost influence that the Republican platform shall endorse the prompt ratification of the treaty and approve the reservations."

Organized.

A committee of business men will decide at a meeting late today how much St. Louisans will be asked to contribute to the support of the Salvation Army. The committee also will name dates for a financial campaign, which probably will be held the week of May 24.

At a luncheon to team captains at the Planters Hotel yesterday, it was announced that to date upwards of 100 business and professional men had pledged to work for the success of the campaign. The number of pledges will be increased during the coming 10 days. T. P. Chapman, chairman of the Members' Conference of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the luncheon. Twenty-five members of Quentin Roosevelt Post, American Legion, have volunteered to solicit.

Is This the Monster Fish That Swallowed Jonah?

Scientific authorities admit that the creature on the Yacht Tamiami belongs to a tribe, a member of which may have gulped down the ancient Prophet.

This Monarch of the Seas' Greatest Depth Is 45 Feet Long, Weighed 30,000 Pounds

It fought its captors for 39 hours and only was subdued after being harpooned five times and pierced by 151 bullets from a large caliber rifle. A 400-pound octopus, a 1500-pound blackfish and 500 pounds of coral were found in the monster's stomach.

It is neither a whale nor a shark; has not been Classified in Natural History and is a mystery.

This mysterious sea monster is on the Palatial Yacht Tamiami at the foot of Olive street. It is the largest fish in the world.

There are 500 other wonders of the Deep Sea on the Tamiami, including a 2000-pound Sea Cow, which swims in a tank built on the boat and which eats from the hands of members of the crew. There also is a man-eating shark, an octopus, Devil Fish, Angel Fish, Sail Fish, a Sea Horse and other strange and unusual wonders of Marine Life.

Visitors will be permitted to board the Palatial Yacht Tamiami to view the deep sea mystery, the Sea Cow and the 500 other wonders from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily.

Ten thousand St. Louisans have seen this monster in last few days.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

Why act like a blind person when you have two good eyes with which to select what you eat from a PIGGLY WIGGLY? Your eyes will think more of you if you use them in a PIGGLY WIGGLY because they will look on cleanliness and will have a variety to choose from that no store clerk could explain to you over a telephone even if he took all day in the explaining.

Some people think they save time by telephoning to the grocery man, but actually they lose time. They lose time again if the order is sent C. O. D. by waiting at their house one hour, two hours, three hours and more hours because the grocery boy did not come, for there must be someone on hand to pay for the groceries when they do come. Time is lost if the groceries are ordered on credit because somebody has got to check the bill at the end of the month and either go to the store and pay the account or else have a bill collector ringing the front doorbell asking that the account be paid and all of this worry afterward is something that should be past history as the food by that time has been eaten.

You got because you can't get by the checker's desk of a PIGGLY WIGGLY store without paying. You also know when you get home you have not got to wait for the delivery boy to come because you have already got your purchase in the kitchen and you know it is all there without checking it up because you have already checked it when you bought it—and besides all of this you know what you got was clean where you got it and you also know that the price was right because you looked at the swinging price tag before making the purchase.

RED CROSS OFFICER FINDS BOLSHEVISM 'GHOSTLY FAILURE'

Col. Edward W. Ryan, After Extended Trip Through Russia, Predicts Chaos Within Six Months.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 14.—Bolshevism, as exemplified by the Russian Soviet Government, is characterized as "ghostly failure" by Col. Edward W. Ryan, Red Cross Commissioner for North Russia, and the Baltic States. Col. Ryan, after an extended trip through the Soviet domain as a private citizen with the Estonian peace delegation, has returned recently to the United States. His account of what he saw is contained in a report forwarded to the State Department.

Without outside aid Russia will be a chaos in six months, Col. Ryan believed. Raw materials are not to be found in any of the centers, he said, and the people as a whole seemed to devote its whole time to the one supreme object of getting sufficient nourishment to fend off actual starvation. Officials of the Government, according to Ryan, admitted that the transportation problem alone would result in the overthrow of the present regime.

Moscow Streets Filthy. Streets of Moscow and Petrograd were described as "indescribably filthy," being at least ankle deep in dirt and refuse. They have not been cleaned in years, the commissioner said. With no coal and little wood, power plants were all closed down, and "everybody was cold." In Moscow the inhabitants were said to be so poorly clad that the visitor "got the impression that it was regarded as a disgrace to be clean or neatly dressed."

The average citizen looks like a "bum," he said. Schools are being kept open, he said, and children apparently were considered next in importance to the red army. Hospitals, he added, were practically destitute of the most elementary medicines and equipment.

His report, communicated to Robert E. Olds, Red Cross Commissioner for Europe, and forwarded here, is said to be the first authoritative first-hand information on conditions in Russia received since the return of the Bullitt mission a year ago.

Col. Ryan visited hospitals, schools, churches and theaters and observed intimately a community life which he described as hopeless.

Government "Clearly Hopeless." The Government was "clearly hopeless," he said. Lacking outside aid, a revolution is expected within six months, when "trouble of the worst kind must be faced." The report said, continuing:

"The general belief is that it will start with a gigantic pogrom and the best that is hoped for is that from the welter a middle class intelligentsia may emerge."

At no time, Col. Ryan said, was he permitted to make any independent investigation. Except when he was asleep he was not alone for a moment.

He said he saw what "his guide saw fit to show him," was unable to take notes and throughout the adventure was harassed by the possibility of being detained in Russia against his will.

Meat Mostly Horse Flesh. "Meat on sale was mostly horse-meat," and the whole population seemed absorbed in the effort to obtain food enough to sustain life.

A daily bread ration of one pound is prescribed but in reality has been reduced to one-quarter of a pound.

In a conversation with Symoskow, Minister of Public Health, Col. Ryan inquired whether there had been any attempt to classify and register the poor.

"There are no poor," Symoskow replied. "In Russia all are equal and in the same class."

Of the hospitals visited 75 per cent of the personnel of one was said to have died in the preceding three months. Medical supplies were totally lacking.

Schools apparently were in operation and churches also were open. Picture galleries were open and kept up as they were before the war.

At the theaters, which have been taken over by the state and opened to the public without fee, Col. Ryan stated he attended presentations of "The Bride of the Emperor," "Chalopin in 'The Barber of Seville,'" and a ballet, "The Sleeping Princess."

Women Doleful in Appearance. Women, he said, "presented a doleful appearance everywhere."

In Petrograd everything made of wood, including wooden houses, was being sacrificed for fuel. There was no water and people were obliged "to go down and draw it up in pails from the river." There was no soap and no lighting.

One evening, Col. Ryan said, he drove at 9 o'clock the length of the Nevsky Prospekt, a distance of four miles, and counted 79 very small candle lights in the upper stories of the windows.

"The state of transport facilities," Col. Ryan said, "goes far toward telling the story of the whole breakdown of Russian Policy. The solemn fact is that transports for all practical purposes as a means of keeping up the national life has virtually approached the vanishing point."

"Public morality can scarcely be said to exist. The moral breakdown all along the line is serious, if not irreparable."

Pepto-Mangan Increases and Enriches the Supply of Red Blood—Builds Strength RESTORES COLOR AND APPETITE

Energy and Interest Soon Come With Red Blood

"I don't know why I should feel the way I do," is a remark often heard. A close look at the person who says this, will find signs of anemia or bloodlessness.

When the blood is thin and weak you do feel miserable. The simplest tasks seem too much for your strength and you get ashamed of your pale face and dull eyes.

Red blood makes the best complexion. It is red blood that puts roses in the cheeks, light in your eyes and spring in the walk.

To build up more red blood take Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan furnishes thin, watery blood with the necessary nourishment to enrich it, enabling it to supply energy, vitality and strength to every part of the body.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan to patients suffering from anemia because its beneficial and lasting qualities are well known to the medical profession.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in either liquid or tablet form. Both forms contain exactly the same strength and medicinal properties.

When you buy Pepto-Mangan of your druggist, be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.

How To Have Red Lips!
The girl with red lips and pink cheeks may be thankful, for both denote health—vigorous, forceful, magnetic health, and while it may be possible for some to attain owing to morbid states of health, yet a majority of seemingly healthy young women and men are almost devoid, because of a lack of red corpuscles. When the blood is impoverished and enriched with these corpuscles, the weight increases and a beautiful tint appears on the cheeks, while the lips assume a healthy red color. Many physicians and beauty doctors prescribe three-grain iron tablets which are said to invariably increase the red blood corpuscles after a course of treatment lasting several months. The nervous system and general health also improve rapidly. The best apothecary will supply this tablet in sealed packages.

MILLIKEN PICTURES
NOT ALL VALUABLE

Manager of New York Galleries to Let Prospective Buyers Judge Worth.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 14.—The Anderson Galleries today issued the catalogue of the last purchase of paintings by agents of John T. Milliken and which arrived in this country after his death. The pictures reached the galleries a few days ago, but its experts have made no appraisal of them, nor will they express any opinion of their worth. The catalogue will set them forth in the descriptive terms that came with them, without comment or guarantee.

General Manager Mitchell of the Anderson Galleries, in telling a reporter for the Post-Dispatch this today, said that he would not hazard a guess as to how the pictures would sell. "For the pictures," he said, "the market for high-class pictures has been dull, but it is improving." Asked the specific question as to whether or not Milliken had got full value when he purchased the pictures which have been sent here, Mr. Mitchell said he doubted it very much. "There are some very pretty pictures in the lot," he said, "but there are also a great many which appear to be of little worth. Many of them, perhaps the most of them, are landscapes, and some have merit, but as to the genuineness, I will leave that to the experts to squabble over. If they care to. We will sell them just as they stand. A Corot, for instance, we will describe as a picture 'signed Corot'."

"There are a great many genuine pictures by great artists which come to this country which have no value beyond the name signed to them, yet sometimes bring large prices. These are usually pictures which the artist began in his lifetime and never finished. Perhaps it was because he did not like the quality of the work, or because he could not get the idea in his mind transferred satisfactorily to the canvas or for some other reason. But when an artist dies there can always be found many, maybe several hundreds, of these unfinished paintings, for the most part worthless, but the executors of the estate dig them out, dispose of them to the best advantage and many people buy them because of their origin, rather than their worth. Good judges, of course, do not buy the bad pictures. Once we sold a Corot for $30,000 and a couple of years later sold another for $200. It was one of those unfinished pictures. It was perhaps three-quarters finished and there was not the slightest doubt of its authenticity, for we had its certified pedigree, but it brought only $200. But as to the Milliken collection, all I would care to say is that while there are many very pretty pictures, pictures that will appeal to buyers, there is also a lot of inferior stuff."

INDICTMENT AGAINST
E. J. ENGLISH DISMISSED

An indictment charging Edward J. English, former assistant cashier in the Poplar street freight office of the Missouri Pacific, with embezzlement of $3629, was dismissed by the Circuit Attorney's office, in an order of nolle prosequi entered in Judge Garesche's court today. The reason given for the dismissal was that restitution had been made, and that the railroad company's officials were not disposed to prosecute. English was assistant to Samuel W. VanDyne, cashier, who is now serving a five-year prison sentence for the embezzlement of approximately $75,000. No direct connection between the two cases has been shown. The indictment against English charged that he took the money between August, 1916, and April, 1916. VanDyne's pecuniary losses were alleged to have begun earlier.

SILVER FOX PELTS
AVERAGE $200 EACH

Most of 1500 Come From Breeding Farms—16,500 Wild Cat Offered Today.

The auction of 1500 silver fox pelts for approximately $300,000 occupied yesterday at the spring sale at the International Fur Exchange. Prices continued their downward trend, the foxes bringing about 25 per cent less than in the February sale.

About 80 per cent of the pelts sold were from silver fox farms on Prince Edward Island, a province of the Dominion of Canada. W. Chester S. McLeure, representing the association of breeders on the island, in an interview, gave an interesting account of the industry, together with observations on the rarity of a good silver fox pelt.

"A pure black fox is such a rarity that he would be kept for breeding," he said. "The price of breeding animals has gone as high as $12,500 for single foxes of good breeding strains."

"The average fox farm contains from 20 to 50 pairs. Each pair is kept in a wire enclosure in a wooded lot 20 by 40 feet, where they are confined by wire netting carried underground two and one-half feet. The foxes are selected for the market during the last three weeks of December, when the fur is the thickest and of prime quality, and they are instantly and humanely killed by pressure over the heart which cuts off the air supply from the lungs."

"The markings of the first grade of what are commercially known as silver blacks are very clearly defined. What we call the fur is of two kinds, the soft down under-fur and the guard fur, or guard hair, as it is sometimes termed. These over-hairs are very different in quality from the soft under-fur."

The under-fur should be slate-colored blue all over the body. The guard hair, which must be long and thick enough to cover the under-fur completely, should be a raven blue black over the neck and shoulders. Over the rump of the animal the guard fur is sprinkled with silver white which gives the name to this class of fox. Nature has made this marking one impossible to imitate, for each individual hair is ringed with white for about a quarter to a half-inch and then tipped jet black. As examined through a magnifying glass the white ringed part of the hair is a little thicker than the rest, a fact which lends the brilliancy of the silver flashes in the black fur. The white tip of the brush, or tail, is a characteristic of the entire fox family. On the silver blacks the brush is very large, with the under-fur thicker than on the rest of the pelt and the long guard hairs all black and slightly coarser than over the body.

"The thickness of the fox tail is for purposes of protection. The mother fox encircles her pups with it while they are nursing."

"Perfectly marked pelts are very rare and can bring almost any price. Two very fine foxes were sold in the mid-winter auction at the International Fur Exchange for nearly $1000 each."

Today's offerings at the auction are 15,500 wild cat, 15,000 lynx cat, 2500 lynx, and 175,000 raccoon.

FARMER CONFESSES TO KILLING FAMILY OF 8 IN NORTH DAKOTA

Henry Laver Admits He Murdered Jacob Wolf, Wife and Children After Quarrel Over Cattle.

By the Associated Press.

WASHBURN, N. D., May 14.—Henry Laver, a farmer, has confessed to the killing of Jacob Wolf, his wife and five children and a young boy, Jake Hofer, on the Wolf farm three miles west of Turtle Lake, N. D., on April 22, it was announced here yesterday by J. E. Williams, State's Attorney for McLean County.

His feelings of long standing, culminating in a quarrel over injuries administered to Laver's cattle by Wolf's dog, was responsible for the crime, according to Laver's confession to Williams.

Joseph W. Hannauer, president, and other newly elected officers of the Real Estate Exchange, were installed last night at a banquet at the Jefferson Hotel. About 200 real estate men attended.

John H. Farish, retiring president, read the annual report, in which he pointed out some of the things accomplished by the organization in the past two years, mentioning the abrogation of the income tax law in 1917, the series of real estate lectures conducted by the exchange at the Y. M. C. A., and the raising of commissions on leases and sales.

Hannauer outlined some of the things the exchange hopes to do under the present administration. He said the organization would take a positive stand on every public question directly affecting it. Other addresses were delivered by William Marion Reedy, Forrest C. Donnell, Raymond P. McNally, vice president of the National Bank of Commerce, and C. L. Simpson, Kansas City, former president of the National Real Estate Exchange.

ST. CHARLES HAS GAS AGAIN

After a shutdown of 40 hours, due to lack of coal, resulting from the switchmen's strike, the St. Charles Lighting Co. announced that gas was flowing through the mains at 6:10 this morning and that enough coal was on hand to run the plant for possibly five days. E. M. Johnson, the manager, said that he hoped to have an additional supply of coal before that time.

Both daily newspapers of St. Charles were obliged to suspend publication yesterday for lack of power, and the International shoe factory, which employs several hundred persons, was seriously hampered by having to use acetylene gas. Cooking service was entirely shut off from the homes using gas ranges. The company has about 3000 customers.

CARELESS SHAMPOOING SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Farish, retiring president, read the annual report, in which he pointed out some of the things accomplished by the organization in the past two years, mentioning the abrogation of the income tax law in 1917, the series of real estate lectures conducted by the exchange at the Y. M. C. A., and the raising of commissions on leases and sales.

Hannauer outlined some of the things the exchange hopes to do under the present administration. He said the organization would take a positive stand on every public question directly affecting it. Other addresses were delivered by William Marion Reedy, Forrest C. Donnell, Raymond P. McNally, vice president of the National Bank of Commerce, and C. L. Simpson, Kansas City, former president of the National Real Estate Exchange.

ST. CHARLES HAS GAS AGAIN

After a shutdown of 40 hours, due to lack of coal, resulting from the switchmen's strike, the St. Charles Lighting Co. announced that gas was flowing through the mains at 6:10 this morning and that enough coal was on hand to run the plant for possibly five days. E. M. Johnson, the manager, said that he hoped to have an additional supply of coal before that time.

Both daily newspapers of St. Charles were obliged to suspend publication yesterday for lack of power,

Bond's Clothes

NOT HERE!

No Middlemen's Profits at Bond's

Daily we're proving that the ordinary retailer who simply retails what someone else makes must charge more for clothes of the same quality than this manufacturer-selling-direct-to-you-institution.

Middlemen's profits (included in the ordinary retailer's prices) are not a part of Bond Prices. Neither are the costs of operating charge accounts and free deliveries. Here you save up to $15 and more on every purchase.

The Wear Determines
the Value

This advertisement or the price tickets on our clothes don't tell the real story by a long shot. To really get what we say about our values you've got to get inside of a Bond garment and wear it out. THIS YOU'LL FIND—they wear and wear and wear before they finally wear out—it's the long wear that really determines value.

First "Long Pants Suits" for Junior Men

When a young fellow bids farewell to knickers he wants that "mannish look." Our first "longies" have that mannish look, plus the boy's build.

CURLEE REITERATES

CHARGE AGAINST REED

St. Louis Attorney Says He Heard Senator Condore
Sinking of Lusitania.

Col. Francis M. Curlee, the accuracy of whose statement in a speech before the Democratic State Convention in Joplin that Senator Reed had condoned the sinking of the Lusitania by Germany was denied by the Senator in a formal statement
Wednesday, today replied to the Senator.

Curlee in a signed statement repeated his charge and quoted from newspaper reports of speeches the Senator delivered, one of which Cur-lee said he heard. He said that Reed's fragmentary quotations from speeches to indicate he had denounced the sinking of the Lusitania
were "carefully chosen."

Curlee said he heard a speech delivered by Reed at the Park Hotel
in University City, June 12, 1915.
"It was then respectable to attend
Reed dinners," he said, "and I offer
no apology." He quotes from a newspaper report of Reed's speech
as follows:

"He said that neither England nor Germany had maliciously taken an American life. He said it was a case of an innocent bystander being struck by a stray bullet in a fight between two friends."

"If that is not the language of condonation I am guilty of misuse of words," Curlee said. "I did not charge that he applauded the devil-ish Lusitania murder. Even the German-American Alliance did not dare do that."

Statement About Belgium.
Curlee then quoted from a report
of a speech Reed delivered in Milwaukee, Jan. 11, 1916:

"These people are not assassins,
and no King, Kaiser or power could ever force the German people into a mere marauding expedition having for its object national loot. You may cry Belgium. Was Belgium not invaded? I answer, Yes; but Belgium was not invaded for robbery; she was overrun because she lay in the path of Germany's believed she must tread if she succeeded in the mighty contest she was waging with France."

"I now charge that he condoned,
palliated and defended the invasion of Belgium," Curlee said. "Will he deny that or will he explain it?"

The Secret of Keeping
The Skin Wrinkle-Free

The great secret of keeping the face smooth, wrinkle-free and refined in texture is to use an effective treatment
when the skin shows a tendency to become loose or the pores to enlarge.
The best thing of the kind is a simple solution made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered axolite in a half-pint of witch-hazel. Used as a wash lotion, this promptly tightens the skin, which of course smooths out the lines and wrinkles
and reduces too large pores.
Larger pores, by the way, encourage blackheads, being so easily clogged with dirt and grime. The lotion referred to therefore serves as a blackhead preventive. It is also valuable in cases of sunken cheeks and chin, the attrition
action of course serving to "draw
in" the folds and obliterate the creases.
Powdered axolite now being sold in convenient quantity in the country, and woman can make this lotion herself.

WAR HERO CHAPLAIN IS GUEST OF LEGION

The Rev. Father Francis A.
Kelly of New York Speaks
on Americanization.

The Rev. Father Francis A. Kelly of Albany, N. Y., staff chaplain and at times senior chaplain of the Twenty-seventh (New York National Guard) Division in France, chaplain of the American Legion, and winner of the Distinguished Service Cross and the British Military Cross for heroism, spoke at a luncheon of the American Legion, at the American Annex Hotel today.

He was introduced by Robert Burkham, chairman of the St. Louis Executive Committee of the legion. He said the legion must remain non-political, but that it must be politically united in opposing any manifestation contrary to Americanism. He said that in the New York Socialist convention 23 of 116 delegates had advocated the endorsement of Russian Bolshevism. This, he declared, was equivalent to a declaration against the honor of womanhood, as he charged that Bolshevism favored the nationalization of women, citing the "Saratov program" in support of this assertion. Officials of the Bolshevik Government have denied that the Saratov program had their approval.

He will address Catholic boys in the St. Louis University auditorium at 4 p. m., and will be the guest of the Knights of Columbus and Catholic Knights of America at dinner at the American Annex at 6:30. He will address a mass meeting tonight in Central High School auditorium, and will tell "a text for Americanism," the story of the Argentine fighting of Sept. 29.

Father Kelly is speaking through the country on Americanization. He said today that he advocated the bonus for soldiers, chiefly because it would enable many service men to marry.

"We need more children from 100 per cent American parents, and the best way to get them is to encourage former soldiers to marry."

The work of the American Legion and of the Boy Scouts, which he also advocated, is not political, or military, or religious. It is Americanization, work.

Which Brings Men's and Young Men's Spring-Weight Suits at Prices That Even This Store Has Not Had the Good Fortune to Quote in Many Months, Quality Considered

Economy is the keynote of the hour and its practice is being heralded far and wide. In these days when every dollar saved counts, an economy event of this magnitude comes most opportunely and is further evidence of this store's constant effort to keep the price of good clothing down to the lowest level. Recent market conditions were such that an organization of our size and influence could make some unusual cash purchases. This we did, with the result that we are now offering economically-inclined men the most remarkable clothes values of the season.

Concerning the Suits themselves, we need only mention that the fabrics and workmanship are in keeping with the usual high standard maintained by St. Louis' Foremost Men's Store. The styles in greatest demand by young men, as well as more conservative models for their elders, are represented. Sizes for men and young men of all builds and proportions. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Technicalities and Common Sense.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Your stimulating editorial, "A New Constitution by Initiative," will go a long way towards focusing public opinion on the vital need of a convention to modernize and liberalize our ancient State Constitution. With splendid accuracy you touch the sore spot in the movement to bring about such a convention when you point out how professional politicians have blocked its progress in our General Assembly for no other apparent reason than their stupid fear of partisan advantage by the dominant party, as if a State Constitution were something to be bargained for, like patronage.

However, you exhibit a bit of editorial nervousness on an essential detail of the proposed plan to amend the Constitution as to permit 15 delegates at large to represent Missourians in the proposed constitutional convention, in addition to bi-partisan representation from each senatorial district. You raise a technical question whether the people of Missouri can authorize such a change in the present Constitution when the General Assembly cannot so authorize it.

I am not a lawyer or the son of a lawyer. You may be technically correct, but as a common sense proposition, it does seem to me that the very purpose of the initiative and referendum is that the people of Missouri at all times constitutionally reserve the power to amend or authorize to amend the Constitution at any point, large or small. And further, as a mere layman, it does appear to me that this reserved power of a sovereign people is not and cannot be limited by the constitutional restrictions we have placed around the elected representatives in the General Assembly.

Let us trust your fear is not too well-founded. However, you are fair enough to give the benefit of a reasonable doubt to the eminent lawyers, Democrat and Republican alike, who have "studied the point and the fact that they recommend this provision creates a strong presumption of its legality," as you editorially express it.

LAYMAN.
(Legislation either by the General Assembly or by the initiative must conform to the Constitution. It is announced that in addition to an initiated measure for a revision convention, an amendment to the Constitution legalizing the plan for 15 delegates-at-large will also be submitted under the initiative.—Editor Post-Dispatch.)

Keeping Faith With the Public.

Certainly great praise is due the Terminal Railway officials—Johnson, the general manager; Burlingame, J. P. Maher, R. B. Hickman and many other men who have donned jumpers and labored day after day and night after night all through the days of the strike to keep the station trains moving. Certainly these men who are not used to doing switching duty—at least not for several years—and have left their official duties to a helper, hand and worked 16 hours a day in most cases, deserve the praise of all St. Louisans.

AN EASTERNER.

Bond Issue Failure.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

St. Louis adopted electric lights—the measure of its progress.

It has increased the bonded indebtedness from $11,000,000 to $13,725,000. Cleveland's bonded indebtedness is now $10,000,000 and St. Louis talks of being in a class with Cleveland and dreams of a million population.

Tuesday St. Louis announced to the world that it is satisfied with an open sewer running through its principal park and residence district.

That it is satisfied with an antiquated sewer system; that it thinks it good business to pay the interest on the $5,000,000 bridge without the approach necessary to use the bridge; that its playgrounds are sufficient and need no improvements; that it would rather have its feeble-minded children on the streets than on a municipal farm; that it thinks the industrial farm without the necessary farm buildings is good business; that herding white women and black women together in the city jail, without proper cells, is all right; that our present morgue is fit for the unfortunate visitors that visit their dead there at the rate of five bodies per day; that our method of keeping our meter trucks in a garbage stable and letting the repair work out to good business; that our few hundred feet of docks are enough encouragement to the water transportation possibilities, although New Orleans, at the other end of the line, measures her docks by the miles; that our narrow streets, built for horse traffic, will do for a slow going town; that we want no more conventions and, therefore, to avoid the danger of the city becoming a convention center, no proper convention hall is wanted.

A NATIVE BORN.

London City Hall Approaches.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
Reading your editorial, "London street from Fourteenth to Eighteenth, facing our city hall, as well as Thirteenth street—a block away—and how handy for traffic from congested Market street. The knob, so to speak, at Eleventh and Walnut ought to be taken down this week, as one can't see the city hall from Broadway."

JOHN M. GOMES.

DEBS, CONVICT AND CANDIDATE.

The Socialists have the courage of their convictions—perhaps convicts would be the better word. They have nominated Eugene V. Debs, who is serving a term in the penitentiary for violation of the espionage law.

The only way in which the Socialist candidate can be made eligible for the presidency is through a presidential pardon, which his supporters are now seeking in Washington. The pardon is sought under cover of a general amnesty for political prisoners, and it is impossible to see how Mr. Debs could be pardoned without a general amnesty, including at least all prisoners who were not guilty of overt acts of treason and disloyalty, because Mr. Debs is the worst of the offenders charged with opposing the Government and all its war plans to defend the rights, the vital interests and the safety of the nation against the assaults of the imperial combine of Central Europe and Turkey.

The question of the eligibility of Mr. Debs for the presidency goes beyond the mere technical bar raised by his conviction and imprisonment for violation of law. There is another bar raised by the political question of his fidelity to the principles of the Constitution and the representative government of the people under the law founded upon our constitutional principles. Mr. Debs, while the country was in the throes of a great war, was convicted of attempting to incite insubordination, disloyalty and disaffection in the military and naval forces, attempting to obstruct recruiting and uttering language tending to incite, provoke and encourage resistance to the United States and to promote the cause of the enemy.

Unlike many others, the justice of whose conviction under the espionage act was, if not untenable, at least questionable, and who protested their innocence, Mr. Debs admitted the charges against him and gloried in his offenses. He welcomed his conviction and declared that he stood for all that he had done and would continue to stand for it. If Mr. Debs had been President, the United States would have submitted to Germany and Bolshevism would rule. If he should get to be President—perish the thought—the Constitution would be "a scrap of paper."

This is not a bar to his nomination nor his campaign by the revolutionary remnant of the Socialist party, whose war program, adopted in this city, was a disgrace, and who still approve that program and proclaim their revolutionary aims. In nominating Debs, said Morris Hillquit, the Socialist party of America signifies its determination "not to recede one inch from our revolutionary program." But it is a bar to his support by true Americans.

It is a pity that the case of Debs in connection with his nomination is linked with the cause of general amnesty. The war being over, general amnesty for pacifists and conscientious objectors would be a wise and just policy, but Debs and his campaign are hinged with the policy for political purpose. The supporters of Mr. Debs want to place a martyr's crown upon him and to get the benefit of whatever public sympathy may be aroused by pleas for the release of conscientious objectors and pacifists. They want to indict our Government for Czarism in connection with the Debs campaign for revolution.

The imprisoned Debs, glorying in his conviction, is the logical candidate of the revolutionary Socialists, who in convention sang the "Internationale" and the hymn of Bolshevist Russia, but carefully refrained from slaying "America" or "The Star-Spangled Banner," and whose flag is the red flag. The Debs running mate is Seymour Stedman of Chicago, leader of the faction which demanded a plank favoring Soviet government and the general strike. The Stedman plank was rejected as too radical for American consumption, but Stedman was nominated for Vice President.

It is well to have the issue of revolutionary Socialism—the international program which has convulsed Russia and Central Europe—put squarely before the American people under the banner of a disloyalist. It will enable the opponents of constitutional, representative government, under majority rule and under law, to be counted. It will prove the strength of American institutions.

CARRANZA AT HACIENDA TAMARIZ.

One offer made to Carranza was that fighting should cease at Hacienda Tamariz and that he should be provided with safe conduct to Vera Cruz, but tradition supports the old First Chief in his refusal of the terms.

After the cadets and other revolutionists against Madero had been besieged in the arsenal at Mexico City for four days, the tables were turned in the street fighting and the Government officers were besieged in the National Palace. On Feb. 17, 1913, Gen. Blanguet arrived with 1200 fresh Federal troops to end the uprising, but both he and Huerta, the chief General of the Madero forces, went over to the rebels. President Madero and Vice President Suarez surrendered on Feb. 23 and were placed in vehicles to be conveyed to a place of safety, but never arrived there. The bullet-riddled condition of their bodies was explained as the result of a visitation of "accidental death" en route.

PRODUCTION UNDER THE 8-HOUR DAY.

The Federal Public Health Service has made a permanent contribution to known data as to the results of the eight-hour day in industry. It has special interest and value at the moment, in view of the charge finding expression in many places, that not a few of the woes of the present are due to an underproduction caused by reductions in the hours of labor.

The report of the Federal experts fully sustains the arguments on which the institution of the eight-hour day has for years been advocated. Their survey included a study of industrial plants which we may assume were selected with such care as to be representative, and one of their conclusions is that, owing to a lessened degree of fatigue, accidents are less under the eight-hour than under the 10-hour day and that there is less lost time, or time not effectively utilized.

Output under the eight-hour day is also more likely to attain to the full capacity of the individual than under the 10-hour day. The conclusion of greatest importance, perhaps, is that output is more steadily maintained by a force of men working eight hours than by men working 10 hours. Summarized, their finding is that the advantage is all with the shorter working day, as compared with the longer day, industrially as well as in other respects.

That the shorter day will give the worker more diversified interests, afford him more time for the family circle, tend to improved health and make him a better citizen has always been reasonably certain. The Government experts find that the same influences that make him a better citizen make him also a better and more productive worker.

The eight-hour day is now almost universal. In fact, in the exceptions to it we probably would find that those who work less than eight hours outnumber those who work more than that time. Undoubtedly further experience with it will only strengthen the conviction as to its value and wisdom.

WOOD FOR PAPER MANUFACTURE.

Nothing in the line of conservation is of more importance than the remaining timber suitable for paper manufacture. In an article on "Future Newspaper Supply," in last Sunday's Post-Dispatch, Secretary of Agriculture Meredith called attention to the Alaska forest reserves. The national forests of Alaska, says Secretary Meredith, probably contain 100,000,000 cords of timber suitable for the manufacture of newsprint and other grades of paper. This seems enormous, but with the most careful management, apportioning the annual cut and replanting, these forests would only supply one-third of the annual consumption in the United States.

As for other woods suitable for paper making, it is admitted that the supply in the United States other than Alaska will be exhausted in less than 25 years. The Canadian provinces have taken alarm with regard to their supply, and appear to be determined to safeguard their forests for the use of their own people through embargoes.

Where, then, are we to look for timber sufficient to supply the other two-thirds of our annual needs for paper making? Most of the European countries are already compelled to import paper-making timber or wood pulp. Russia has vast timber lands, but Europe can easily consume all that Russia will be able to produce for many years. Recent reports have indicated that the bamboo canes which grow in huge quantities on the lowlands of Further India are suitable for paper. But the distance both of this supply and that of Russia makes it almost if not quite prohibitive. Finally, the Brazilian forests, estimated to cover an area one-third the size of Europe, are not of the kind suitable for paper. Brazil exports hardwood timber, but is obliged to import light pine and fir woods.

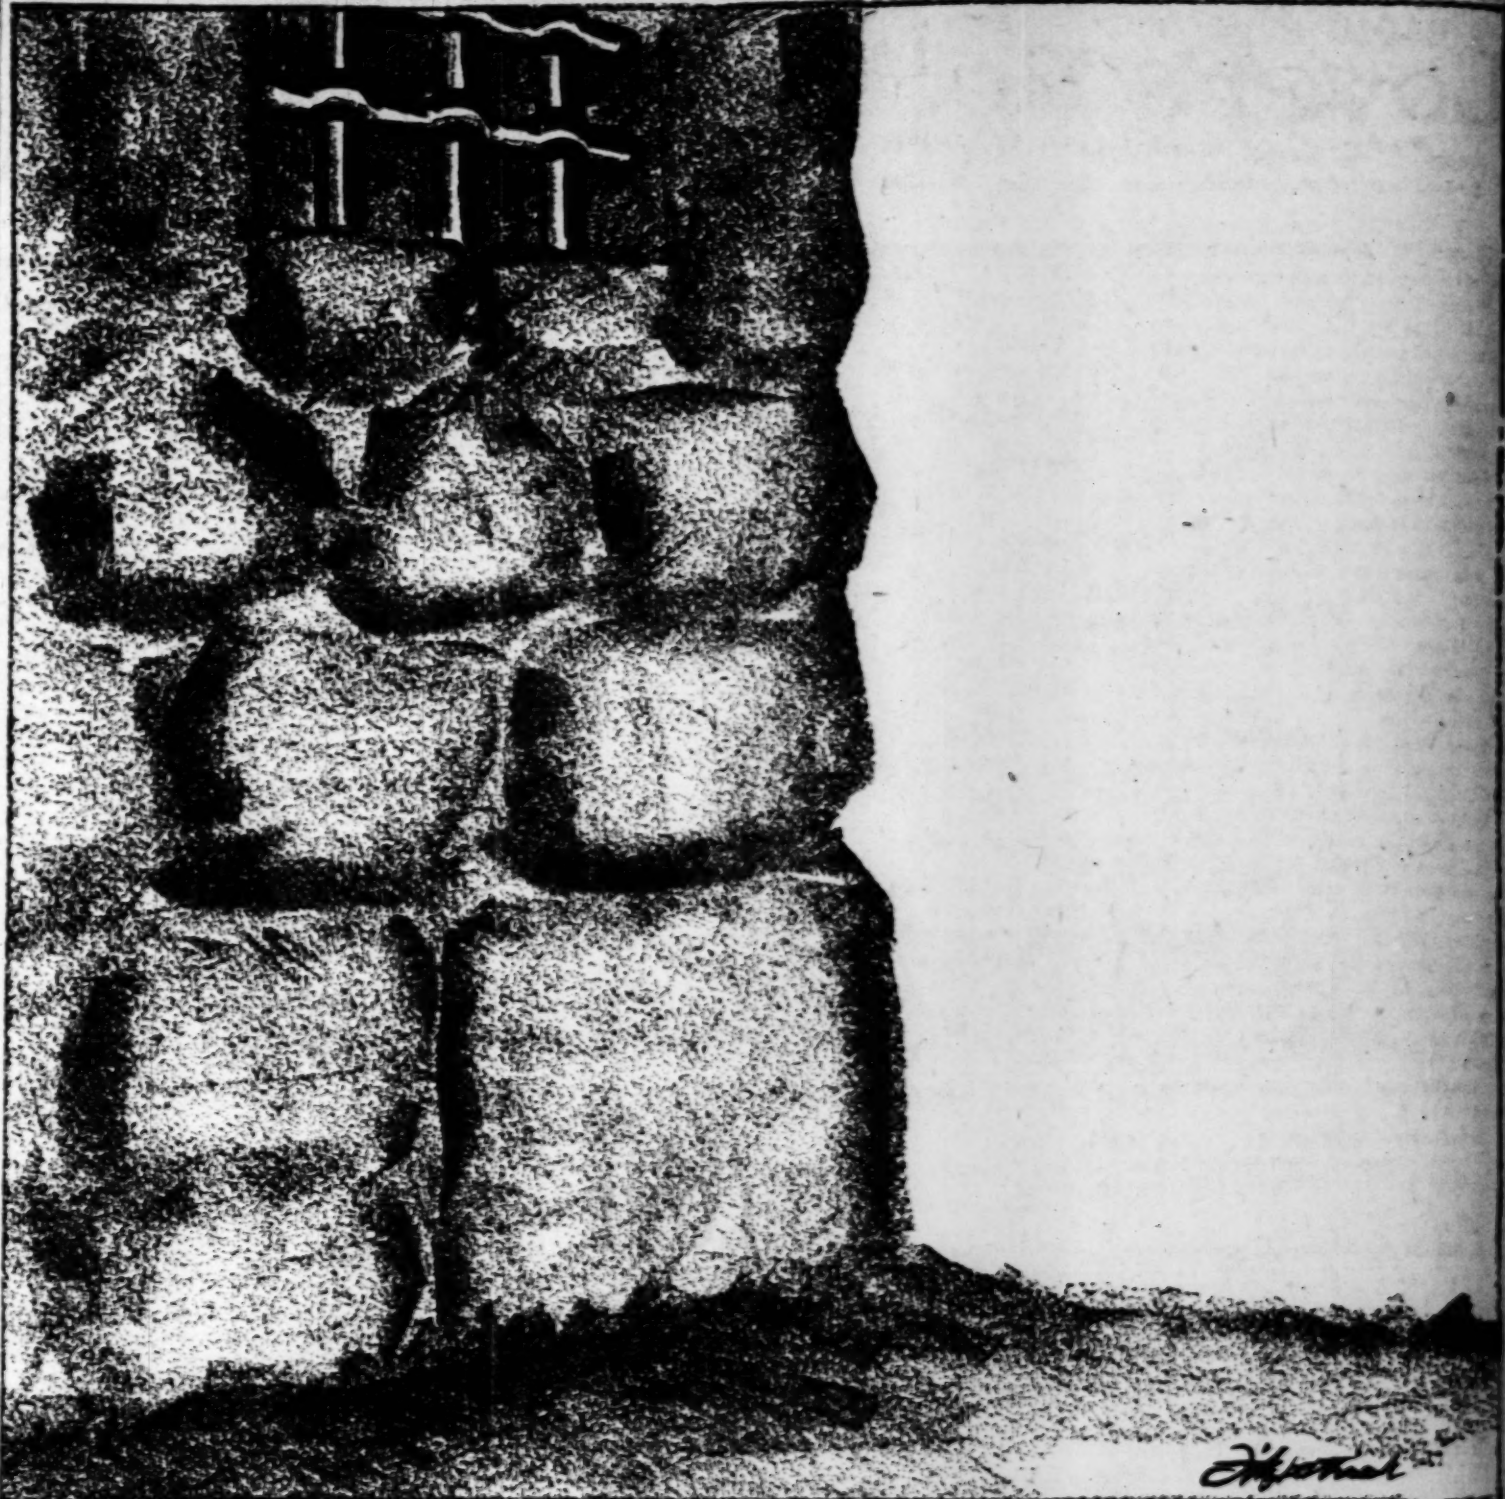

Our only resource, then, lies in a scientific system of forestry, replanting all cut-over land and extending the forest area so as to insure a supply for the future. It will not be sufficient to merely guard and control the so-called national forests, now said to contain over 155,000,000 acres. Much of the timber in these forests is hard woods. Immediate steps should be taken looking to the conservation and scientific use of every acre of fir, larch and other paper-making woods. Not only is the life of the newspaper threatened, but education itself, which relies largely upon books, is menaced by the destruction of paper-making material.

When a collar manufacturer's profits for 1919 exceeded those of 1918 by 84 per cent the public is bound to get it in the neck.

Sir: There was a prayer in the prayer book of Edward VI that might well be reinserted in these days. It was found among "Sundry Godly Prayers for Divers Purposes," under the title "A Prayer for Landlords." It was as follows:

"We heartily pray Thee to Send Thy Holy Spirit upon the change of them that possess the grounds and pastures of the earth, that they, remembering themselves to be Thy tenants, may not rack or stretch out the rents of their houses or lands, nor yet take unreasonable fines or money, after the manner of covetous workmen, but so let them out that the inhabitants thereof may be able to pay the rents and to live and nourish their families and remember the poor. Give them grace also to consider that they are but strangers and pilgrims in this world, having here no dwelling place, but seeking one to come; that they, remembering the short continuance of this life, may be content with that which is sufficient, and not to join house to house and land to land, to the impoverishment of others, but so behave themselves in letting their tenements, lands and pastures that after this life they may be received into everlasting habitation."

Yours truly, S. R. NEWTON.

Sir: I notice that Miss Rose Hill has invaded your column with remarks about Fanny Hurst's marriage. Miss Hill's opinions impress me as being those of an adolescent maid, untried in love as yet; a reader of hectic novels. I agree with Miss Hill that Miss Hurst has done wisely, but in one part of her letter she says: "Jealousy has no place in the life of the superior woman." It is common knowledge that the emotions of a superior woman are more tempestuous, more soul-searing than those of the ordinary little woman. The heart of a superior woman admits jealousy, just as surely as it does love. Miss Hill should change her phrase to read, "Jealousy ought to have no place in the life of the superior woman." Further down in her letter Miss Hill says that Fanny Hurst has done wisely in retaining her maiden name. I see nothing wise in this act. Miss Hurst can just as well preserve her individuality under her husband's name in private life as under her own name. This does not necessitate that her stories go under any other name but Fanny Hurst.

Sir: In cleaning out our desk after the bond issue election we found an article written by our city jailer, a former newspaper writer, describing the deficiencies of the jail. "Owing to lack of space," he writes, "it is impossible to devote more than one tier to the women." Is this such a situation as the poet had in mind when he wrote "There was lack of women's nursing; there was dearth of women's tiers?"

LINCOLN EYRE ARTICLES IN PAMPHLET.

For the first time since the end of the war, November, 1918, a correspondent has succeeded in thoroughly investigating the conditions in Russia and the results of Bolshevism. Lincoln Eyre, the Paris correspondent of the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, entered Russia last November. He spent three months studying the results of the rule of Lenin and Trotsky. Mr. Eyre has seen Russia from the inside and has witnessed all the workings of the "Red" regime. He approached his task with an impartial mind and his conclusions may be relied upon as giving a true picture of the Russia of today.

Special articles from Mr. Eyre, printed in the Post-Dispatch, have been grouped and issued in pamphlet form. Any reader of the Post-Dispatch who is interested in the subject may have copy if he will send his name and address together with 3 cents in postage stamps to cover cost of mailing. The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

IMMIGRATION.

From Providence, New York Sunday Paper.
THE enemies of free immigration are now working very energetically to prohibit the coming of European workers into this country. Some do it from political motives, thinking of every European workman as a revolutionary anarchist, infidel or criminal. About these politicians it may be said that their fears are absolutely baseless. It should be remembered that every immigrant leaves his home to come to America not to start a revolution, but with the expectation of making a living and securing more or less his material welfare. From this point of view must be approached the question about allowing immigrants to come here. In reality, the wave of immigration is regulated by the demands of industry in this country. The present industrial situation in this country is such that even the bitterest enemies of free immigration will have to change their attitude. Of whom is America mostly in need at the present time? Of the so-called "laborers." The Americans are spoiled; they do not want to work as laborers or at any hard work which does not pay as well as the work of the skilled mechanic; and the lack of unskilled labor is keenly felt by the farmer, the railroad, factories, mines and the building industries. Consequently, America is in need of the building power of the immigrant. Without the immigrant so much can be accomplished, not one step forward can be made.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

OLIVER MADOX HUEFFNER in London National Review.
IF you took the whole population of Europe, mixed it roughly in a mortar, added a certain quantity of Africans, Asiatics, and the like, crushed it with your pestle and scattered the result thinly over the continent, you would have something approximating to America. It would, however, more closely approximate a "people" than do the Americans at present, for instead of being properly mixed they are divided into ethnographical strata, which only touch at the edges. America tries to forget this, and succeeds by vigorous newspaper propaganda in making Europe forget it, because in these stirring times it is well to belong to a united people. She is not at all proud of certain kinds of "Americans," and does her best to forget them. In the same way, she proclaims valiantly that the class system is unknown within her marches, being all the time painfully aware that in no other country in the world are class distinctions more inevitable or more obviously or more rigidly drawn. Only they are not quite the same class distinctions that we have in England.

THE PRESIDENT'S CABINET.

From the American Review of Reviews.
THE Cabinet at Washington has no existence or authority, except as the President chooses to take counsel with the heads of the departments, and call them by this collective name. It has been the prevailing custom for Presidents to play up the heads of departments, somewhat after the fashion of a European Cabinet. When John Quincy Adams, Daniel Webster, Henry Clay and James G. Blaine were Secretaries of State, they were not under the discipline of the milder and weaker men who lived in the White House. When citizens have been asking of late whether there is any practical way by which a real Cabinet may be brought into legal existence, without destroying what may be of value in the President's authority. During the war period Mr. Wilson used the head of new boards and commissions rather than the permanent heads of departments. His purposes analogous to those of a Cabinet, but all this, of course, was temporary and informal. These questions lie in the public mind rather than affecting the future, than the present.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY.

LET'S TAKE A CHANCE.

When clothing went up to a hundred a suit, we said to ourselves, "No, indeed: No dollars we'll add to the producers' loot. We vastly prefer to look seedy. But now a good clergyman rises to say That dress is the mould of a nation, For shabbiness institutes moral decay And smartness is virtue's foundation.

And yet Deacon Simkins, who lived on the farm—A ragged and tattered old geezer—Who utterly lacked all sartorial charm Was moral as Mrs. J. Caesar. He never put anything down on the wheel, Or bet on the turn of the ticker. The Janes for the Deacon had not an appeal, And he paled at the thought of hard liquor.

While Vera the Vamp who is dreadfully smart Whose costumes are always prophetic Of styles yet unknown to the dress-maker's art, Could hardly be termed an ascetic. She dresses to show every sinuous curve, The men fairly gasp when they pass'er, And no one would ever invite her to serve As a student's advisor at Vassar.

And therefore we hold that the cleric is wrong: We're safe with the overall stranger, But, when a Parisian skirt comes along, She fairly irradiates danger. We can't see the menace in wearing old clothes; Our puritan ancestors were 'em; And they (or at least so we're lead to suppose) We're patterns of perfect decorum.
